

PDF Products & Services 2019

Overview

To assist our members in promoting their products and services, for 2019 the PDF Association will produce a glossy printed volume of members' products and services using materials supplied by members.

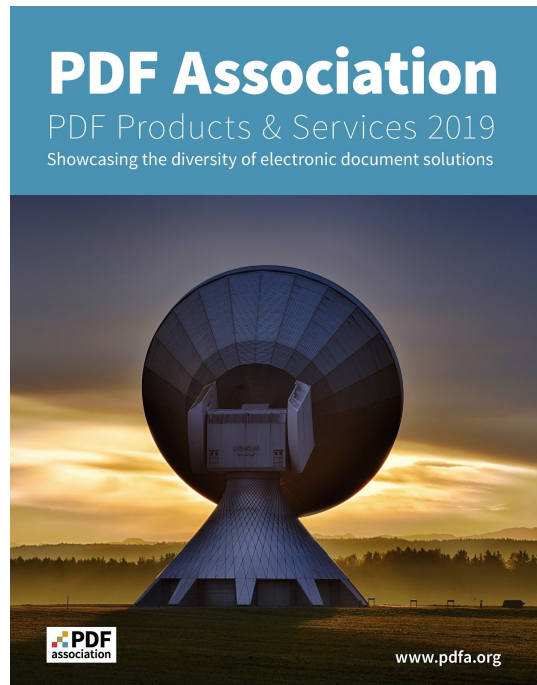

Last year's PDF Products & Services was popular

The piece will include an editorial overview and cover developed by the PDF Association.

This guide will be:

- Printed for attendees at the Electronic Document Conference in Seattle in June, 2019
- Distributed at PDF Association events through Q2 of 2020
- Posted prominently on pdfa.org
